Proposed Electric Road to Connect Virginia City with Washington, Hope to Begin Construction July 1, Confederate Veterans Elect Officers-Train Kills Colored Woman,

WASHINGTON HERALD BUREAU, (Bell Telephone II3.) Corner of Prince and Royal Streets.

Alexandria, Va., April 1.-A new electric line connecting this city with Washington and offering passenger transportation at greatly reduced rates is proposed in a petition which will be presented to the city council at an early date asking for the right to lay tracks over certain streets of the city. The matter will come be fore the council in the form of an ordinance framed to grant a franchise for right of way on the streets to a concern known as the Alexandria and Washington

The president of the company and others identified with the movement, it is said, reside in Canada and are extensively in terested in the operation of municipal and suburban railways. It is said that they success of the proposed local enterprise, According to the ordinance the con pany will begin the construction of the road by July 1, should the measure be passed in sufficient time. The line is to be completed and in operation within two years from the passage of the ordinance. The single trip fare between Alexandria and Washington, It is stated, is to be

What route is to be followed by the new line outside of Alexandria has not been decided upon, but it is the purpose of the company, it is understood, to gain access to Washington by means of the Highway bridge. The matter will probably be transmitted to the council at its next meeting, April 9.

PRIMARY CONTEST ON

Baltimoreans Vote for Party Nominees To-day.

FIVE CANDIDATES IN FIELD

Mayor Timanus and Former Representative Wachter Work for Republican Favor and Mahoel, Linthicum, and Brown Want to Be Democrat's Choice for Mayor.

Special to The W.shington Herald.

Baltimore, Md., April 1.-Every one o the five candidates in the mayoralty fight to be settled at the primary election to morrow, seems to feel absolutely certain of capturing the nomination for which he is contesting. Of the five candidates three will enter the Democratic and two the Republican lists.

Mayor E. Clay Timanus has the better show of winning the Republican nomina tion, because he has better drilled forces behind him; because of the demand for his nomination from the ranks of tax payers and most prominent citizens of Baltimore, and because his opponent, Mr. Frank C. Wachter, has been weakened by his selection of Mr. John C. Friedel as one of his running-mates. Mr. Friedel advocated the Poe amendment, the defeat of which was the Republican campaign slogan two years ago.

The three Democratic candidates are brimful of optimism. While on the surface the situation looks favorable to Mr Mahool, because, like Mayor Timanus, he has the advantage of well-drilled forces, there may be surprises in store. Mr Linthicum has perfected a magnificen rganization without Mr. Mahool's friends fully appreciating its importance and its ramifications. In each precinct of the city five men will be on duty all day to work for the nomination of Mr. Linth
